Downtown Tours in November Interactive Sessions on Downtown Code Planned

The City of San Marcos Planning and Development Services Department will hold small group interactive listening sessions and downtown tours during October and November in an effort to facilitate public input and understanding of a development code specific to downtown San Marcos.

The public listening sessions provide opportunities for citizens and stakeholders to present views and ask questions regarding the proposed Downtown Code in a small group atmosphere.

“Public input and review of the Downtown Code is a crucial step in the code writing process,” states Matthew Lewis, Interim Development Services Director. “The sessions allow our staff to receive feedback on the likes and dislikes of the current Land Development Code versus the proposed code in a casual and comfortable setting.”

Walking, biking and trolley tours through downtown will also be offered in November to allow citizens to gain firsthand knowledge of proposed
